THE SEVEN

SEALS

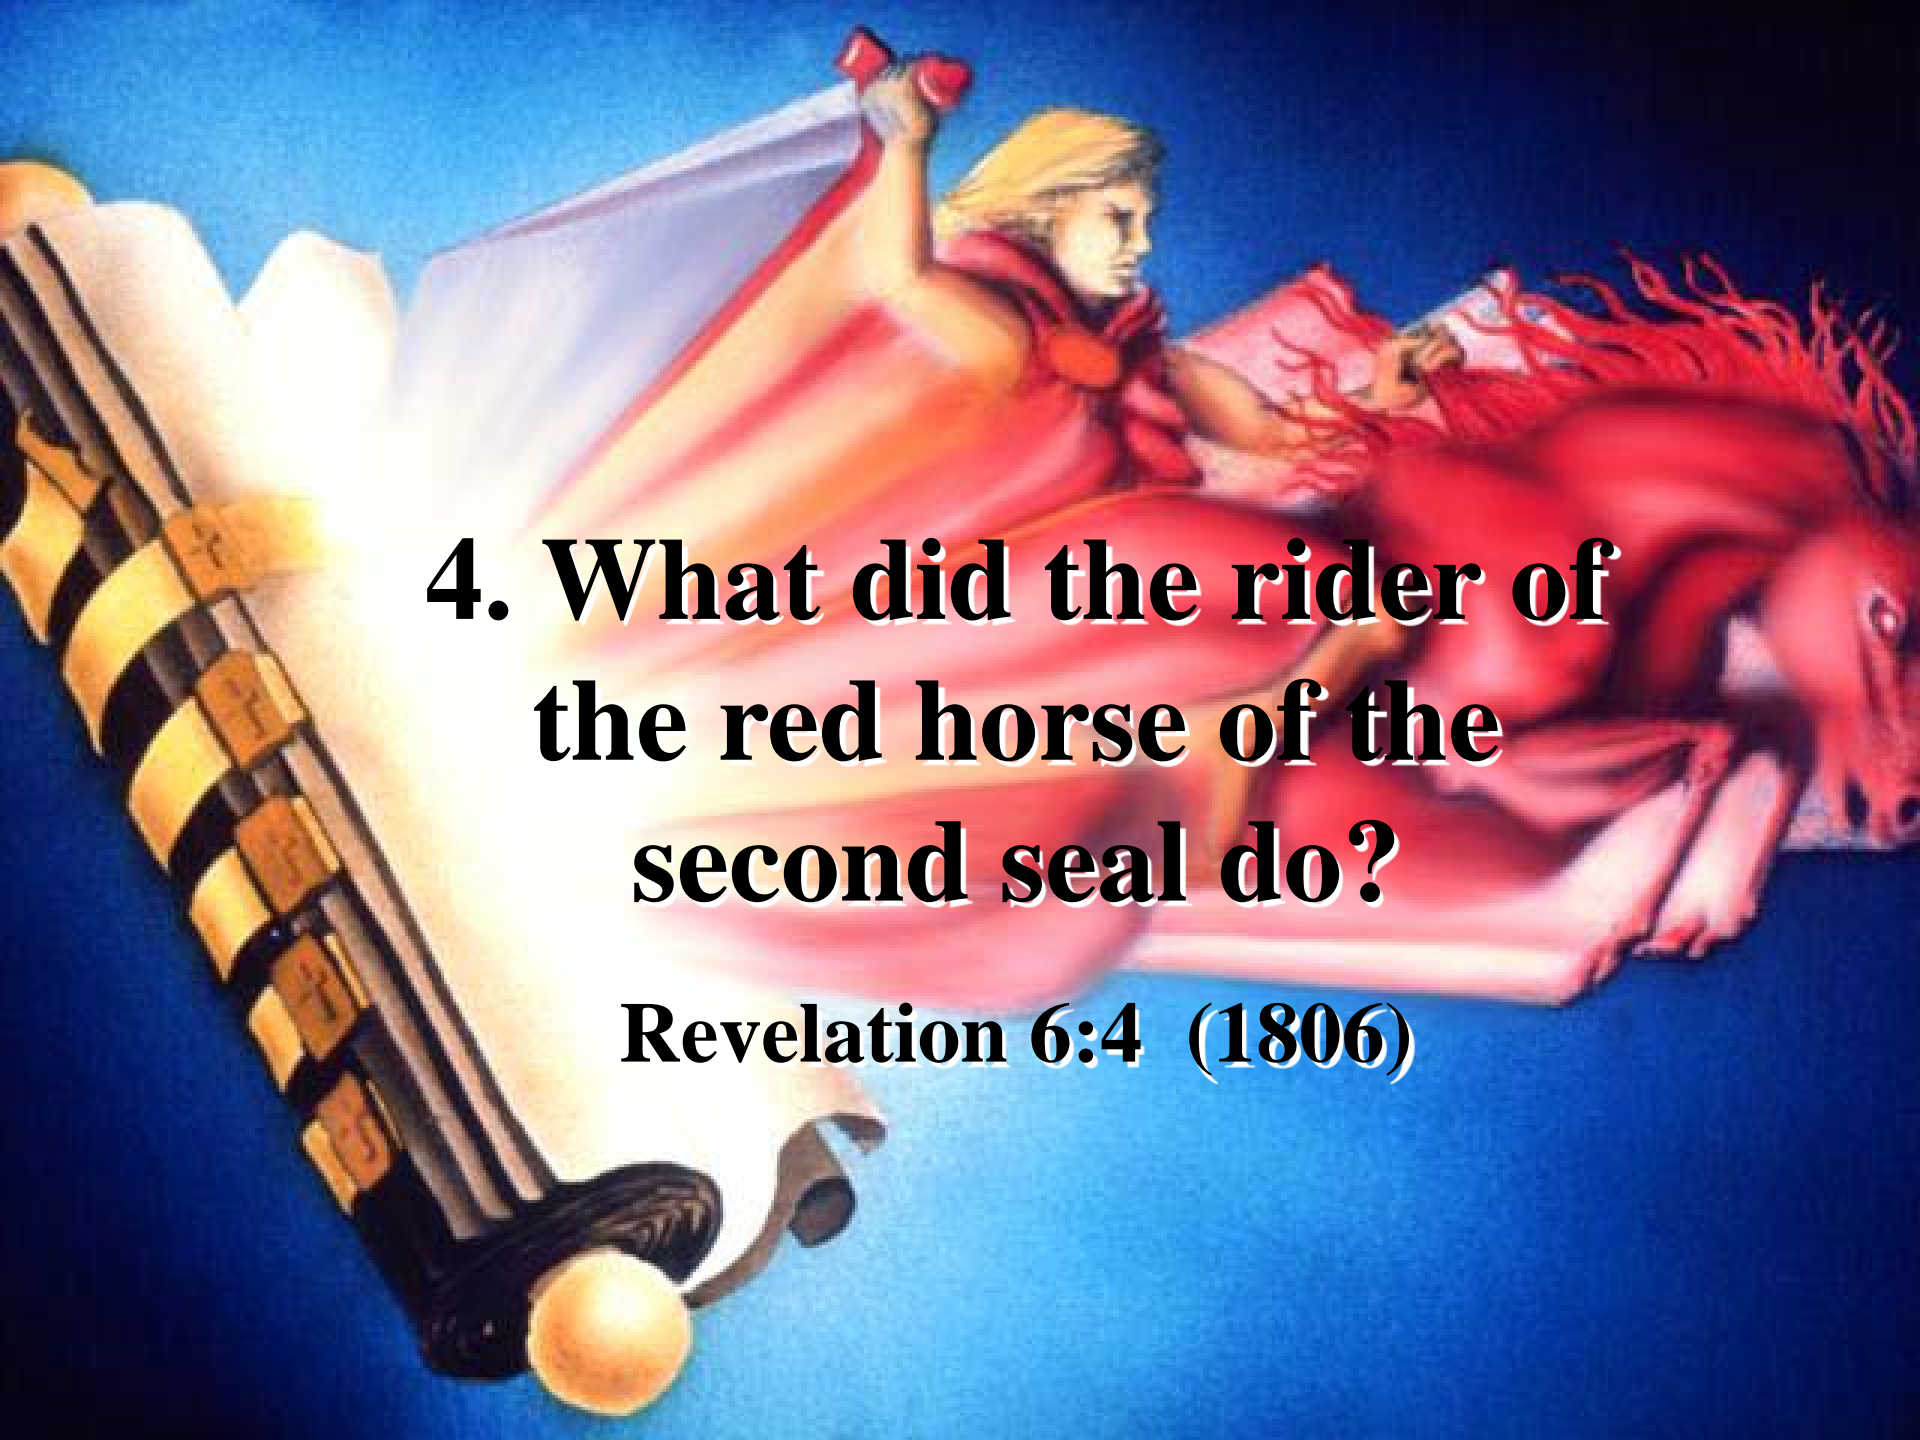

The image is a composite. On the right side, a rider in a white, flowing robe with a gold sash and a crown-like headpiece is depicted riding a white horse. The rider is holding a long, thin object, possibly a sword or a staff, aloft. The background behind the rider is a gradient of blue and purple. On the left side, a large, golden scroll is shown, partially unrolled. The scroll has several dark, rectangular seals or bands wrapped around it. The scroll is set against a dark blue background.

3. In the first seal, how is the activity of the rider of the white horse described?

Revelation 6:2 (1806)

He went forth conquering
and to conquer.

An illustration of the rider on the red horse from the Book of Revelation. The rider is a man with long blonde hair, wearing a red tunic and a red cape. He is riding a red horse and holding a scroll in his right hand and a sword in his left. The scroll is unrolled and shows the letters 'P', 'E', 'R', 'S', 'E', 'C', 'U', 'T', 'I', 'O', 'N', 'E', 'M'. The background is a dark blue sky with a bright light source behind the rider.

4. What did the rider of the red horse of the second seal do?

Revelation 6:4 (1806)

A digital illustration of a warrior with long, flowing red hair, wearing a red tunic and a red cape. He is riding a red horse that is galloping through a dark blue night sky filled with white stars. The warrior is holding a long, silver sword aloft in his right hand, and his left hand is on the horse's mane. The overall scene is dynamic and dramatic.

Power was given him... to take peace
from the earth, and that they should kill one another.

5. As the third seal
was opened, a black

hell followed him.

it is near,
even
at the door.
